

Representative Legal Matters

Loic Coutelier

- Advised global semiconductor manufacturer and infrastructure software company on the acquisition of the enterprise business of another global technology company in a transaction valued at USD 11 billion. Subsequently advised the company on post-acquisition integration in several dozen countries.
- Advised global pharmaceutical company on the acquisition of a US biopharmaceutical in a transaction valued at USD 2 billion. Subsequently advised the company on all WARN and mini-WARN matters, issues around retention of key personnel, and inquiries brought by the Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance Investigations Unit.
- Regularly advise domestic and global clients and all employment related COVID-19 matters, ranging from workplace health and safety, applicable governmental loan programs, and cost cutting measures.
- Regularly advise large tech companies on complex employment and benefits issues for their global workforce.
- Advised a major technology and entertainment company on the spin-off and sale of a business unit involving several dozen countries.
- Advised Fortune 100 pharmaceutical company on the spin-off of various products into a new publicly traded company in several dozen countries.

Prior to joining the Firm, Loic handled the following matters:

- Represented an employer in a California Division of Labor Standards Enforcement settlement hearing against former employee alleging unlawful wage deduction.
- Advised a global technology company on the drafting and implementation of work rules and employee handbooks in the US and in over 50 countries.
- Performed internal pay audit for a publicly traded US micro-chip manufacturer.
- Advised a publicly traded US biomedical manufacturer on the creation, testing, and implementation of its GDPR compliance program.
- Advised a large real estate company on the creation, testing, and implementation of its CCPA compliance program.